

Nancy Murray, O.P. as Catherine of Siena

Based on the Life of St. Caterina Benincasa

“If you are what you should be you will set the world ablaze” Catherine of Siena

DOMINICAN SISTERS SPIRITUALITY CENTER

6501 Almeda Rd. ~ Houston, TX 77021

Friday May 6th and Saturday May 7th, 2016

With a fertile imagination, Sister Nancy Murray, OP, transforms herself into Caterina Benincasa, who was born into a humble family in Siena, Italy, in 1347. Catherine, as she later was known, became a lay member of the Dominican Order. Her story will fascinate you and help you to understand why Catherine was named Doctor of the Church. Join us in celebrating the 800th year of the Dominican Order with Catherine of Siena.

FRIDAY – 7:00 PM – Gather ~ 7:30 – Prayer & Presentation ~ 8:15 – Reception [no fee]

SATURDAY – 8:30 – Gather ~ 9:00 AM – Prayer & Introduction ~ 3:00 PM – Conclude

The day will consist of presentations as well as interaction with Catherine.

The fee for Saturday is $40 ~ Lunch Provided (Scholarships available)

For information call Blanca Perez at 713-440-3710

To register send form below, call Blanca at above number or email Blanca at bperez@domhou.org ~ Register before April 26th—Limited Seating

NAME _____

PHONE # _____ CELL# _____

EMAIL ADDRESS _____

FRIDAY NIGHT YES NO PAYMENT ENCLOSED YES NO

CLIP & RETURN TO: Blanca Perez @ 6501 Almeda Rd. Houston, TX 77021