Convocation 2015

We begin on Thursday, October 1st at 7PM, and complete our days together on Sunday, October 4th – culminating with the celebration of Eucharist.

All of our Market Place tables have been filled. In fact, we even squeezed in one past the limit. All of the “vendors” in the Market Place support the Convocation. Many of them support other important works (such as DVUSA and our Family in Iraq) and non-profits. We ask you to support them! So please bring your shekels! You’ll be glad you did. It’s a Win/Win!

A Message from Pat Farrell, OP

Convocation 2015 is just around the corner! Over 400 sisters and associates have registered, and our preachers and presenters – as well as our planning committee – have been busy at preparations to make this, not only a time of gathering, reconnecting, and making new relationships, but also of taking action on the critical issues of our time. Moreover, we celebrate 800 years of preaching, gathering, making relationships, and taking action. We celebrate these 800 years of Dominican Life as we stand “as a clear voice for truth, justice, and peace!”

Prior to the Convocation we will publish a DSC Facebook page so that we can upload photos and videos, and so that the participants can also share their photos and videos. That way we can keep the rest of you up to date on our proceedings.

Gratefully,

DSC Raffle

Don’t forget our DSC Raffle! We have some great prizes, even a Kindle Fire and a FitBit. The drawing will be at the Convocation on October 4th, and tickets will be available there. Though it will be an exciting moment, you don’t need to be present to win. But just think how great it would be to have your name read out among all the sisters and associates gathered. Though raffle tickets are available on our website, we are also sending them out with this mailing.
