Sister Marie Molini, formerly Sister M. Benet, a Dominican Sister of San Rafael for 69 years, died peacefully in hospice care in Stockton, California on October 13, 2017.

Sister Marie was a dedicated educator who taught for many years in Catholic schools throughout California. Her proudest achievement was as a presenter at the National Catholic Education Association conference in 1978, sharing about Saint Mary's High School (Stockton) Community Involvement Program, a model for high school student service that was visionary for its time.

In 1996, Sister Marie became the caregiver for her mother and a ten-acre walnut ranch. She became an accomplished agrarian and shared her harvest with friends and other religious. She continued to minister at Saint Mary's High School until 2014, assisting students seeking financial aid for college or high school.
