

In Memoriam

Dominican Sister of Grand Rapids Gail Ann Martin, OP

Sister entered eternal life on April 29, 2018 at the age of 78 after 60 years of religious life.

Gail Ann Martin was challenged by this quotation from her high school days. She spent a lifetime listening and growing, relishing opportunities to “sit . . . and listen.”

Gail Ann was the eldest of five daughters of Henry and Beatrice Hook Martin. She was born in Detroit July 10, 1939. When she was five years old the family moved to the neighboring suburb of Taylor. In grade school she attended both Edgewood Public School and St. Alfred's in Taylor where her teachers were Grand Rapids Dominicans. When she was in the eighth grade, Sister Flavian took a group of girls to Marywood to see a play. Young Gail Ann was so impressed, she decided that Marywood was the place for her; that fall she became an aspirant at Marywood Academy.
