

In Memoriam

Dominican Sister of Mission San Jose Judith Reagan, OP

Sister Judith Reagan was born on April 17, 1942 in Pasadena, California, the first born and only girl in a family of eight. She attended Catholic elementary school and San Gabriel Mission High School. Judy entered the Dominican Sisters of Mission San Jose in 1960 and celebrated Perpetual Profession on June 23, 1968. She earned a BA in history from Holy Names College in Oakland in 1980, an MAT in Early Childhood Education from the University of Oregon at Eugene in 1990, and a M.Ed. in Curriculum and Human Development with a specialization in Early Child Brain Development from Harvard Graduate School of Education in 1998.

Ministry and communal living brought Judy to sixteen different assignments throughout her religious life, the last as Congregational Archivist. In her later years Judy developed a serious lung condition that she endured with grace and courage for many years. On May 11, 2018 she passed peacefully into eternal life surrounded by loved ones at Stanford Hospital. Her Mass of Resurrection was celebrated on the evening of May 23rd and she was laid to rest in "God's Acre" at the Dominican Sisters Motherhouse in Mission San Jose the following morning.

Dominican Sister of Racine Lucy Edelbeck, OP

Born to earthly life: October 18, 1922
Religious profession: August 4, 1942
Entered eternal life: April 19, 2018

"I am convinced that the universe is under the control of a loving purpose and that in the struggle for righteousness, we have cosmic companionship."
– Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

"I hope to be remembered... as someone who lived on Earth, expressed compassion to creation, listened deeply with my heart, and experienced communion with those most neglected and abused," Dr. King's reading began. Sister Lucy could have written that!
