Dominican Sister of Racine
Valerie Zielinski, OP

“At [her] Remembering Service, story upon story cited her great capacity to love. Former students from her primary classes recalled how special and confident their teacher made them feel with the unconditional love and enthusiastic support she showered upon each of them. In her ninety-two years, Sister Valerie accumulated more wealth than she ever could have imagined—not because she coveted such wealth, but because, as a person who instinctively loved and laughed and gave of herself, the ‘more she gave, the more she possessed.’”
